POTTER'S PROBE.
A CHAPTER CONTRIBUTED BY MIN-ISTER NOYES.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—The Potter committee appointed Messrs. Hunter, Mc-Mahon, Springer, Butler and Hiscock a subcommittee to remain in Washington and take testimony. Messrs. Potter, Morrison, and Cox will act as a relief for it and the sub-committee in New Orleans.

DENNIS' TESTIMONY.
At the session to-day L. E. Dennis resumed his story. He said box No. 21 of the Arch precinct, Atchua county, Florida, was objected to by the Democrats on account of an alleged fraud. The inspector of the polls had, in a confidential conversation with the witness, admitted that there had been 219 fraudulent names added to the list of voters, and his knowledge of the fact was partially the cause of his declining to testify, as requested by Gov. Noyes.
The addition of these 219 names was a matter of public notoriety.

The witness was appointed by the secretary of the treasury as an employee in the secret service. His instructions were to examine the records of the United States courts in North and South Carolina, Georgia and Florida. After resigning this position he was appointed agent of the internal revenue, but his commission was cancelled before he entered upon the duties of that office. The letter of recommendation written by Gov. Noyes was submitted. It is a formal letter of recommendation to Secretary Sherman, mentioning the witness as one of the many Republicans ostracized in Florida, and commanding his application to the consideration of the secretary. The witness never knew of Gov. Noyes having put in evidence before the returning board anything excepting the facts as furnished him.
It was the idea of the southern Republicans to impress upon the minds of the northern Republicans that everything was fair and honest in Florida.

To Mr. Butler the witness said he believed the returns in Archer precinct should have shown 219 votes in excess of what they did for the Republican party. The Republican officers made up the deficiency from the registration book, so as to make the returns show their proper number of votes. He believed there had been fraud on both sides. When the votes were turned out of the box the missing number of Republican votes appeared as having been legally cast.

DENNIS WANTED AGAIN.
Dennis was instructed to hold himself in readiness to appear before the committee, if having been decided that the matter of the manipulation of votes in Atchua county was not yet closed.

EDWARD F. NOYES.
United States minister to France, testified that he was in attendance upon the canvassing board in Florida during the last presidential election; did not go at the request with the knowledge of Gov. Hayes, and while there did not receive either telegrams, letters or communications of any sort from Gov. Hayes. He took a legal part in the proceedings of the canvass, arguing the cases before the board of canvassers, etc.

He undertook to find out the facts relating to the alleged frauds in Atchua county, Archer precinct No. 2, and owing to parties swearing one way and immediately thereafter directly opposite, he had lost all confidence in them, but finally, from diligent inquiry and the consistent testimony of some forty or fifty Republicans that they had voted the Republican ticket, he reached the honest conclusion that the count was returned correct. He had asked Dennis to be a witness, and he, Dennis, had proved the correctness of the vote in question to the satisfaction of the witness. He did not doubt Dennis' word that he intended to impress upon his (Noyes') mind that it would not be safe for him to go on the stand for the Republicans, owing to his knowledge of fraud, but that he (the witness) could now solemnly swear that no such impression was conveyed by the remarks of Dennis, and Gen. Wallace, who was present at the time, was now in the committee's room, and would corroborate his (Noyes') statement.

The witness pronounced the statement by Gen. Cooke before the Florida subcommittee, to the effect that he (the witness) Cooke, Gov. Stearns and McLin, were locked together in the room of the secretary of state before the meeting of the board an unqualified falsehood. He had no private conference with any of those gentlemen that required locked doors, and with McLin he had no private conference at all.

Gov. Noyes then submitted in evidence two letters written him by McLin, in a very friendly spirit, in which he pictured very elaborately the frauds practiced by the Democrats, and the delight he experienced upon learning of the success of the Republican party, and embracing in the last letter a request that the witness should aid him in securing the position of district judge of Florida.

Gov. Noyes said Gov. Stearns never told him that arrangements had been made throughout the state that whatever might be the actual vote, the returns would be made to show a majority for the Hayes electors. No such statement was made by him to anyone, and no such knowledge came into his possession.

Referring to the fact that the passage of the Potter resolutions in the preamble to which McLin's affidavit charging that the action of the canvassing board was influenced by promises made by Hon. E. W.
Noyes, affected him very painfully, Mr.
Noyes said he thought it was very unfair on the part of a branch of congress to assail him upon so slim a statement as that made by McLin, and he expressed a hope that if this investigation should prove guilty, as charged, the committee would make his exoneration as public as the charge had been made, and that it would not wait to do so until the regular report was made, but would say so at once.

Gov. Noyes said he never told John F.
Coyle in Tallahassee that he had assurance from Gov. Hayes that the members of the canvassing board would be taken care of.
He did not know John F. Coyle from Adam. He may have spoken to him but did not tell him anything like that. It would have been a lie, and he does not tell a lie.

GEN. LEW WALLACE. of Indiana, was called and stated that he was in Tallahassee during the canvass of electoral vote, and was constantly in Gov.
Noyes' company; never heard any conversation between him and McLin; never heard him discuss the canvass before it was closed with either McLin or Congill; never heard him indicate that there were any frauds committed by the Republican party, which must be covered up; never heard him express any doubt that the Republicans had elected their ticket; recollects that Gov. Noyes requested Dennis to appear before the canvassing board, concerning Alachua county, and that Dennis expressed a disinclination to do so, but the witness received the impression that the disinclination arose from a sense of personal danger; never received any impression from Mr. Dennis at that or any other time that any frauds had been perpetrated by the Republicans; received a decided impression as to the frauds perpetrated by the Democrats. Dennis wanted to go upon the stand, because another witness, who had been expected, had not arrived. Who the witness was, or what he was expected to testify, he does not recollect.

Gen. Wallace stated that when he returned to Indiana, after the count had been completed, he received a dispatch from Hon. Zach. Chandler, asking him to go back to Florida and attend to some business before the courts. He hesitated to go, and then received a request from Gov.
Hayes to go. He went, and upon that second visit he told McLin that he was there at the request of Gov. Hayes. Gen.
Wallace then stated that during a visit to McLin's house the latter told him that shortly before Mr. Manton Marble had been there at his house and had said there was no necessity for his (McLin) dying a poor man, and that if Mr. Tilden was counted in he would be taken care of. The witness said that was a very bold proposition from Mr. Marble, who had evidently forgotten that if Mr. Hayes should be declared elected he also could take care of the Florida Republicans, and the witness had no doubt he would do so. He did not wish this to be construed as a proposition made by him to McLin, for whom he had too much respect to such a thing.

THE LOUISIANA SUB-COMMITTEE.
NEW ORLEANS, June 28.—The subcommittee which will get here Saturday, will go at once to work, and it is stated in certain circles, calculated to know, that some startling developments will be made.

MR. BURKE. states that he has never said anything yet, as he was not a "babler" and no one had ever questioned him who had a right to do so; but that he was prepared to make a full statement before the committee, which could cause considerable surprise. The Democrats intend to prove that the Felician parishes were peaceful, and that any Republicans were safe there during the election; that Weber was killed by a personal enemy, and that John Garr and his sister and friends were lung for attempting to murder Dr. Sanders; that the five negroes recently executed at Bayou Sara were punished for attempted assassination, and that it was done by parties unknown to the people.

BENARD'S VICTORY.
DETAILS OF THE FIGHT AT CURRY CREEK—A COMPLETE LIST OF THE KILLED AND WOUNDED.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—A Silver City dispatch says: In the recent attack of Bernard's command upon the hostiles the latter are reported to have had 1,500 warriors.
The Indians were not aware of the presence of the soldiers. Their stock was unguarded, Bernard addressed his troops, informing them that they were close by the enemy, and could whip them. He charged them not to retreat, if they did they would be shot, and they might as well die by the shot fired by the savages as our men. The soldiers went silently forward and attacked savages force three times greater.

A COMPLETE SURPRISE.
When within five hundred yards of the enemy the order was given to charge. Mc-Gregor's company was near by and they charged also. The savages fled in dismay.
A large number of them were killed. An encounter took place between Bear King, a Bannock chief, and Sergeant Richmond, of McGregor's company. The sergeant finally killed his man between 1 and 2 o'clock on the morning of the 24th. They were pursued by Bernard ten miles.

REINFORCEMENT.
Gens. Howard, Downey and Miles subsequently arrived on the grounds; also Bender's company. All are anxious for a fight. The body of one soldier captured by the Indians was cut up and burned.
The Indian camp was destroyed by the troops. Many hostiles were wounded.
Col.
